Britton Deerfield Education Foundation Teacher Mini Grants for 2019/20

Again this year the Britton Deerfield Education Foundation awarded special teacher mini grants. Six Britton Deerfield teachers were recipients of these grants determined in April. The mini grants are used for extra supplies for the teachers where the school funding is not available. The teachers applied for the grants to the foundation board in late March. After review of each application, the teachers were awarded this year's grants totaling $2,855.

This year's teachers and their awards were:

Taina Bundshuh to purchase some computers and software in the art production area. This would allow the students to make changes and experiment in simple photo manipulations for projects instead of the teacher having to do.

Vicki Oliver to purchase books to be used by the book club started in January of 2019 to bring together a diverse group of students who share a common interest.

Stephanie Hoffmeister to purchase flexible seating in the classroom and the school sensory room. This would include bucket chairs, beach chairs, wobble stools, bicycle peddlers, lap desks, bean bags and kids recliner chair to name a few of the items.

Dawn Cousino to purchase two iPads, cases, and iPad pencils for the students to work on projects for Social Studies, creative book projects for the language arts, and as an incentive to get work completed to then paly learning games on.

Heidi Fether to purchase a storage system for the ukuleles and replacement strings for the coming years.

Stephanie Koziol to purchase forty novels and 2 sets of teacher resource kits
